

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LAUNCH OF THE PERSPECTIVE NUNAVIK RECRUITMENT CAMPAIGN

MORE THAN A JOB: LIVING AND WORKING IN NUNAVIK

Kuujuuaq, March 24, 2014 – This week, the Nunavik Regional Board of Health and Social Services (NRBHSS) is proud to launch the new hiring campaign, Perspective Nunavik. In collaboration with the Ungava Tulattavik Health Centre and the Inuulitsivik Health Centre, job offers will now be found on one site www.health-social-services.ca in Inuktitut, English and French.

It is now possible to follow us on Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn and Vimeo to learn about employment and training possibilities in health and social services. Various testimonies are available online to illustrate the different job and training possibilities in the Nunavik health and social services network.

Moreover, television ads will be broadcast in the coming weeks over the major national networks—APTN, CBC, SRC, RDI and EXPLORA—starting today.

“Perspective Nunavik is also a recruitment campaign aimed at interesting the regional population in a range of professions that contribute to our organizations’ proper functioning, such as archivists, directors of finance, liaison officers, laboratory technicians, mechanics, computer technicians, cooks and others,” pointed out Elisapi Uitungak, Chairperson of the NRBHSS.

For more information on the Perspective Nunavik campaign and the various job and training possibilities, you may reach us by e-mail at info@sante-services-sociaux.ca.

The NRBHSS is a public agency created in 1978 under the James Bay and Northern Québec Agreement. It is responsible for nearly the entire territory located north of the 55th parallel in terms of the provision of health and social services for the inhabitants of the 14 communities.
